BASIC OPERATIONS

Lighted mirrors with Poet vanishing message technology must be operated via a wall switch. When the switch is turned on, the mirror lights turn on immediately. Approximately six seconds later, the first message illuminates, and remains illuminated approximately eight seconds before vanishing. If there are additional messages, they illuminate approximately two seconds after the last message disappears in succession with the same general sequencing and timing. Once the final message has vanished, the mirror lights remain on until turned off via wall switch. (Note: depending on the actual mirror design, the message animation sequences and timing may be slightly different).
